 □ FULL Header □ Permanent Writing (no tape, staples etc.) Pable of Contents – ALL information filled out □ 4 pages □ Assignments match actual papers □ Footer information is correct permine each notebook's grade. Make corrections to your notebook until it has the grade that one want. After you complete this sheet, fill out the notebook grading sheet and submit your nebook. I will be looking for differences in your grade and my grade. Missing/incomplete sense will be penalized at twice the usual rate. FULL Header	RES	EARCH NOTEBOOK Self Grading v23
awant. After you complete this sheet, fill out the notebook grading sheet and submit your betook. I will be looking for differences in your grade and my grade. Missing/Incomplete cms will be penalized at twice the usual rate. Permanent Writing (no tape, staples etc.)		S
Special process of the process of pour grade and my grade. Missing/Incomplete miss will be ponulized at twice the usual rate.
Cover
Potentian
FULL Header Permanent Writing (no tape, staples etc.) Fable of Contents - ALL information filled out 4 pages Assignments match actual papers Footer information is correct Footer information Footer Footer	Cover
Permanent Writing (no tape, staples etc.) Pable of Contents – ALL information filled out 4 pages Assignments match actual papers Footer information is correct		FULL Header able of Contents – ALL information filled out 4 pages Assignments match actual papers Footer information is correct lotes There should be 23-24 pages Notes have headers (date and day number) in ink. Do this for ALL pages BEFORE first setup grade. Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format locatice Tests Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Braded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
4 pages Assignments match actual papers Footer information is correct There should be 23-24 pages Notes have headers (date and day number) in ink. Do this for ALL pages BEFORE first setup grade. Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format
Assignments match actual papers Footer information is correct Stotes There should be 23-24 pages Notes have headers (date and day number) in ink. Do this for ALL pages BEFORE first setup grade. Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format Tractice Tests Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) Seferences Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
Footer information is correct There should be 23-24 pages Notes have headers (date and day number) in ink. Do this for ALL pages BEFORE first setup grade. Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format Cornell format Carte Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Grade Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) Seferences Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
There should be 23-24 pages Notes have headers (date and day number) in ink. Do this for ALL pages BEFORE first setup grade. Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format Tractice Tests Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) teferences Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
There should be 23-24 pages Notes have headers (date and day number) in ink. Do this for ALL pages BEFORE first setup grade. Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format Tractice Tests Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) teferences Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)	Notes
 Notes have headers (date and day number) in ink. Do this for ALL pages BEFORE first setup grade. Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format Practice Tests Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Grade Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) 		There should be 23-24 pages
 Notes show significant work/lesson details All notes pages are present Cornell format Practice Tests Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
 □ All notes pages are present □ Cornell format Practice Tests □ Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. □ Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score □ At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. □ Thorough solutions for all missed questions □ Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). □ All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments □ Header should be readable and neat □ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. □ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) whis notebook belongs to:
Cornell format Practice Tests Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
 Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
 Each Test Package fastened with paperclip in proper position along the right side, not the top. Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) 	Practi	ce Tests
 Cover sheet with all information, including answers and score At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. Thorough solutions for all missed questions Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) his notebook belongs to:
 □ At least two pages of justification for answers. Pages should have each problem numbered and work should be readable and neat. □ Thorough solutions for all missed questions □ Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). □ All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments □ Grade should be readable and neat □ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. □ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
 □ Thorough solutions for all missed questions □ Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). □ All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments □ Header should be readable and neat □ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. □ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) 		•
 □ Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible when you turn the page). □ All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments □ Header should be readable and neat □ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. □ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) 	5	should be readable and neat.
when you turn the page). All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments Header should be readable and neat Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) this notebook belongs to:		Thorough solutions for all missed questions
 □ All scores should be entered in Moodle. Graded Assignments □ Header should be readable and neat □ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. □ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) 		Team sheet should be fastened to the back with total team score (hole-punched in a way that it is visible
 Graded Assignments ☐ Header should be readable and neat ☐ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. ☐ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. ☐ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References ☐ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) his notebook belongs to: 	•	when you turn the page).
 ☐ Header should be readable and neat ☐ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. ☐ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. ☐ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References ☐ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) 		All scores should be entered in Moodle.
 □ Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. □ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) 	Grade	d Assignments should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete. Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) this notebook belongs to:		Header should be readable and neat
 □ Solutions for missing problems should be written in an alternate color. □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) his notebook belongs to: 		Grade should be assigned, there should be a complete list of problems that are completed and there
 □ Footers should be on the bottom right corner and be consistent with the TOC's (footers should be date that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References □ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) his notebook belongs to: 	5	should be a complete list of problems that are incomplete.
that you got the assignment back and the page number in the TOC) References Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) his notebook belongs to:
References Group Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) This notebook belongs to:		- ☐ Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC) his notebook belongs to:
his notebook belongs to:	Refere	ences
		Footers should match entry in TOC (contains date that you got it and the page number of TOC)
	This not	tebook belongs to:
fotebook Graded By:
	Noteboo	ok Graded By:
fomments:	Comme	nts: